

Benjamin Ehrlich

Phone: 914-374-9616

Email: bensaysstuff@gmail.com

Web: <http://www.benergize.com>

Profile

I am a self-motivated tinkerer and dreamer with a passion for building. I see challenges as puzzles waiting to be solved, and tackle them head on with creative solutions either on my own or side by side with others on a team.

Work History

- Sole Proprietor

December 2013 to Present

Benergize

Boston, MA

Independent game and full stack web developer. Responsible for the creation of video games and contract web apps including enterprise tools for remote PC management.

- Director of I.T.

Summers of July 2010 to August 2018

SummerTech Computer Camps

Purchase, NY

Responsible for installation and maintenance of 120 computers at summer educational program. Daily responsibilities include hardware repair/troubleshooting, virus removal, system administration, and software development.

- Operations and I.T. Intern

November 2014 to January 2015

iMentor

New York, NY

Responsible for maintenance of office computers via onsite support and custom software automation solutions as well as inventory management, data entry/cataloging of assets, and management of large hardware donations.

- Quality Assurance Tester

January 2017

The Deep End Games

Boston, MA

QA tester for independent game release, Perception. Responsible for bug reporting and providing feedback on unfinished game.

Education

- Bachelor's degree in Interactive Media
2015-2018
Emerson College
Boston, MA

Skills

- Expert knowledge of Javascript, JQuery, Bootstrap, PHP, MySQL, HTML and CSS, as well as JSON and XML
- Proficient in Adobe Creative Suite
- Working knowledge of C#, Python, and Java
- Mac, Windows, and Linux expertise
- Customer service and onsite support
- Quality assurance

Accolades

- Kickstarter Staff Pick for Teatime Samurai
- Deans list recipient
- Winner 'Employee of the Summer,' SummerTech